- Table title should be placed above the table and figure caption should be placed below the respective figure.
- Figure and tables should appear soon after the citation in the text. When referring to a figure in the body of the text, "Figure 1" should be used and for table, "Table 1" can be used.
- Both figures and tables should be in editable format.
 Screenshots are not allowed.
- If the figure or table is too large can place at the end of the manuscript.

IV. SYMBOLS AND EQUATIONS

Special care should be taken if the manuscript includes symbols and equations. Mathematical symbols and equations should be produced using the Equation Editor. Provide superscripts and subscripts at necessary places. For Microsoft word 2007, Insert >> Equation and for Microsoft word 2003, Insert >> Object >> Microsoft Equation 3.0. Following are few examples,

$$\frac{x}{y} + x^{2} - \sqrt[3]{\sum_{i=0}^{\infty} \log_{2} x/y - 1}$$

$$\begin{bmatrix} 1 & 0 & 0 \\ 0 & 1 & 0 \\ 0 & 0 & 1 \end{bmatrix}$$

Equations should be numbered continuously.

V. REFERENCE & CITATION FORMAT

This section gives the complete details of citation and reference format.

5.1. Reference Format

References should be arranged in ascending order based on the year of publication (not limited but expected from 1990 to present) and numbered continuously inside square braces [1]. All references should clearly include the author name with initials at the beginning, year of publication, manuscript title, journal / conference title, volume number, issue number and page numbers.
